Lyrics

All by myself in the morning
All by myself in the night

I sit alone with a table and a chair
So unhappy there
Playing solitaire

All by myself I get lonely
Watching the clock on the shelf

I'd love to rest my weary head on somebody's shoulder
I hate to grow older
All by myself

Can't you see I'm no good without you

How can I go on without you
You took the part that once was my heart
So why not take all of me

Lyrics

(Intro)

They used to tell me I was building a dream
So I followed the mob
When it was earth to plow or guns to bear
I was always there on the job
They used to tell me I was building a life
With peace and glory ahead
So tell me why am I standing in line just waiting for bread?

(Chorus)

Once I built a railroad, made it run made it race against time
Once I built a railroad, now it's done brother can you spare a dime?
Once I built a tower to the sun brick and rivet and lime
Once I built a tower, now it's done brother can you spare a dime?
Once in khaki suits gee, we looked swell
Full of that yankee Doodle De Dum
Half a million boots went slogging through hell
I was the kid with the drum
Say don't you remember, they called me Al it was Al all the time
Say don't you remember, I'm your pal brother can you spare a dime?

Dinah, is there anyone finer
In the state of Carolina?
If there is and you know her show her to me

Dinah, with her Dixie eyes blazin',
How I love to sit and gaze into the eyes of Dinah Lee

Yet, every night, my how I shake with fright
Because my Dinah might change her mind about me

Dinah, if she wandered to China,
I would hop an ocean liner, just to be with Dinah Lee

Lyrics

It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
It don't matter anyhow
It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
If you don't know by now
When your rooster crows at the break of dawn
Look out your window and I'll be gone
You're the reason I'm traveling on
Don't think twice, it's all right

And it ain't no use in turning on your light, babe
That light I never knowed
And it ain't no use in turning on your light, babe
I'm on the dark side of the road
But I wish there was somethin' you would do or say
To try and make me change my mind and stay
We never did too much talking anyway
Don't think twice, it's all right

It ain't no use in calling out my name, gal
Like you never done before
And it ain't no use in calling out my name, gal
I can't hear you anymore
I'm thinking and wondering walking down the road
I once loved a woman, a child, I'm told
I give her my heart but she wanted my soul
Don't think twice, it's all right

I'm walking down that long and lonesome road babe
Where I'm bound, I can't tell
Goodbye's too good a word, babe
So I'll just say, "Fare thee well"
I ain't saying you treated me unkind
You could've done better but I don't mind
You just kinda wasted my precious time
Don't think twice, it's all right

Things never are as bad as they seem
So, dream, dream, dream

I could ride away and hide away

Right in my heart

I'm so afraid you might escape from me
And yet, I can't escape from you

I'm confessing that I love you
 Tell me do you love me too
 I'm confessing that I need you
 Honest I do

In your eyes I read such strange things
 But your lips deny they're true
 Would you answer really change things
 Making me blue

I am so afraid you'll leave me
 Saying can we still be friends
 If you go darling it will grieve me
 All of life on you depends

I'm confessing that I love you
 Dreaming dreams of you in vain
 I'm confessing that I love you
 Over again

I'm just a gigolo, everywhere I go
 People know the part that I play
 Paid for every dance, selling each romance
 All my life dear I've played
 There will come a day when youth will pass away
 What will they say about me
 When the end comes I will know
 I was just a gigolo
 And life goes on without me

He lived in a log hut, they called him Old Man Mose
Early one morning I knocked upon his door

There I saw that old man laying flat on his back
Whether old man was dead or sleeping I surely did not know

Lyrics

A country dance was being held in a garden
I felt a bump and heard an, "Oh, beg your pardon"
Suddenly, I saw polka dots and moonbeams
All around a pug-nosed dream
The music started, and was I the perplexed one?
I held my breath and said, "May I have the next one?"
In my frightened arms, polka dots and moonbeams
Sparkled on a pug-nosed dream
There were questions in the eyes of other dancers
As we floated over the floor
There were questions
But my heart knew all the answers
And perhaps a few things more
Now, in a cottage built of lilacs and laughter
I know the meaning of the words "ever after"
And I'll always see polka dots and moonbeams
When I kiss the pug-nosed dream

Where we sat in the long, long ago
The green grove is gone from the hill, Maggie
Where first the daisies sprung
The old rusty mill is still, Maggie
Since you and I were young

A city so silent and lone, Maggie
Where the young and the gay and the best
In polish'd white mansion of stone, Maggie
Have each found a place of rest
Is built where the birds used to play, Maggie
And join in the songs that were sung
For we sang just as gay as they, Maggie
When you and I were young

They say I am feeble with age, Maggie
My steps are less sprightly than then
My face is a well-written page, Maggie
But time alone was the pen
They say we are aged and gray, Maggie
Life's trail is nearly run
But to me you're as fair as you were, Maggie
When you and I were young
